<hr style="border-top: 1px dotted black;"/>
5. I am comfortable being uncomfortable during the learning process	1	2	3	4	5

6. Place yourself (with an X) on the continuum based on your beliefs:

I believe my math abilities are a product of my genetics

I believe my math abilities are a product of my work and effort

Teacher style preference #'s 7, 8 & 9 (#9 is on back)

7. Place yourself (with an X) on the continuum based on your beliefs:

I like a teacher who jokes around at times.

I prefer my teacher stay on point and stick to the lesson

8. Place yourself (with an X) on the continuum based on your beliefs:

A prefer a teacher who stays primarily in the front of the class and provide structured notes

I prefer a teacher who gets their students working and roams around asking individual and group questions.

9. With the assumption that you do have a favorite math teacher of all time, and without naming the teacher, what was it about the math teacher and/or their classroom which you enjoyed so much:

(write answer to #10 in this space)

A few questions about your experiences at HeLa HS #'s 10 & 11

10. Place yourself (with an X) on the continuum based on your beliefs:
(for #10's continuum, the center would be (in your opinion) about right)

HeLa HS (overall) is not rigorous enough

HeLa HS (overall) is too rigorous

11. Place yourself (with an X) on the continuum based on your beliefs:

I feel HeLa HS is not preparing me for my next steps (college, trade school, ect..)

I feel HeLa HS is preparing me very well for my next steps (college, trade school, ect...).

A few questions about you #'s 12 - 15

(if you require more space, please place on a separate sheet of paper and staple to this page)

12. Do you work? If so, what days (typically)

13. What sports and/or activities do you participate in?

14. Right now, what is your 'next step' plans for when you graduate HS?
(ex: join military, enter university (where?), trade school (what kind?), ect...)

15. What is something about you that most teachers don't know, but maybe you wish they did?
